PROGRAMME OUTCOME

This Higher National Diploma (HND) programme equips learners with advanced knowledge and practical skills in User Interface (UI) and User Experience (UX) Designing, preparing them for professional roles in digital product design and creative industries.

- Apply advanced UI and UX design principles to create user-centered digital products.
- Conduct user research, usability studies, and requirement analysis.
- Design user journeys, information architecture, and interaction flows.
- Create wireframes, high-fidelity mockups, and interactive prototypes.
- Use industry-standard UI/UX tools such as Figma, Adobe XD, Sketch, or similar.
- Apply visual design principles, typography, color theory, and layout systems.
- Perform usability testing and accessibility evaluations.
- Collaborate effectively with developers, product managers, and stakeholders.
- Build and present a professional UI/UX design portfolio.
- Demonstrate professional communication, teamwork, creativity, and problem-solving skills.

This practical HND ensures learners can design intuitive and engaging user experiences, translate user needs into effective digital interfaces, and perform confidently in professional design environments and interviews.
